All band students are expected to choose at least two games to perform as a part of the pep band. Students must wear their purple band polo shirts to the games.

Students may attend as many games as they wish, and will receive extra points towards their band letter by doing so. They will receive 1 point for each game attended. If a student attends all six games, they will receive ten (10) points for perfect attendance.

Students will sign up for games in advance, to help assure that all parts are covered.
